

Emerging Leaders Circle

The Emerging Leaders Circle of the Cultural Cabinet is the next generation of leaders and philanthropists for the arts and culture sector. This group comes from diverse backgrounds – nonprofit arts and culture, corporate, legal, and government – and will soon assume top level positions in their respective industries.

We highly encourage companies to identify opportunities for and support participation in this valuable professional development program, as a way to cultivate leadership within the company, industry and region. Participation in the ELC develops professional affiliations, promotes nonprofit board membership and encourages philanthropic endeavors.

Members of the Emerging Leaders Circle will receive several benefits throughout the year. These include:

- Two annual networking receptions with the Cultural Cabinet (a complete list is included)
- Two happy hours annually to network with peers
- Lunch and Learn opportunities (e.g. – February 10 with Ralph Wellington, Partner at Schnader Harrison and the lead counsel for the Barnes Foundation during the museum's historic move from Lower Merion to Philadelphia)

The Emerging Leaders Circle is guided by a steering committee, including:

Nicole Allen White

Director of Government Relations & External Affairs, Philadelphia Museum of Art

Kathryn Brown

Associate, Duane Morris LLP

Kathy Hanrahan

Cultural Alliance Board Member and Development Coordinator, Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation

Dan Keith

Vice President, Center City Sales Manager, Republic Bank

Lindsay So

Research and Policy Associate, Office of Arts, Culture and the Creative Economy, City of Philadelphia

The Emerging Leaders Circle is a program of the Greater Philadelphia Cultural Alliance. The Cultural Alliance leads, strengthens, and amplifies the voice of more than 560 member organizations who generate over $3.3 billion in economic impact for the region. Our members, as well as the cultural community as a whole, count on the Alliance for signature research reports on the health and growth of the sector; grantmaking in partnership with the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts; robust professional development and membership services; marketing and audience development through our signature consumer marketing programs, Phillyfunguide.com and Funsavers; and leadership in policy and community engagement through our GroundSwell advocacy initiative and STAMP teen program.
